

We welcome all guests, but please note that the hotel was built in 1902 and the current floorplan reflects the original build, therefore the building is not fully accessible to all. Various accommodations can be made to the best of our abilities upon request. For example, we have had several guests in scooters and wheelchairs stay with us. See details below in order to make an informed decision as to whether our hotel will meet your needs. Please contact the hotel for further specifics.

Ground Level

- The hotel was built in phases between 1902 and 1917
- Public entrance has two sets of two steps (total of 4 steps), but we have a temporary ramp we can bring out
- Accessible restroom in the lobby
- Meal accommodations can be made in our lobby bar on the ground floor
- Accessible route to the elevator from the public entrance, with our temporary ramp
- Elevators utilize the original narrow shaft ways from the early 1900s and range from 31-40 inches wide
- Elevators feature braille buttons, with the highest button reaching 49-54 inches, depending on the elevator

Hotel Rooms

- Visual and audible alarms for smoke, fire and emergency
- Guest room televisions have closed captioning
- Our hallways and doorways remain narrow
- Guest rooms vary in size and configuration. For specific information on the best room type to accommodate your needs, please contact the hotel directly
- Our guestroom entry doors are less than 35 inches wide

Restrooms

- We can provide an elevated toilet seat and a bathtub assistance device for guestroom bathrooms
- All guestroom showers and bathtubs have a grab bar
- Some guestroom bathrooms are equipped with a hand shower and a bench

Misc.

- Service animals are welcome at The Washington Square Hotel
- The restaurant is not accessible, but meal accommodations can be made in our lobby bar
- Due to building and elevation configurations, our 1917 annex building is difficult to access
- We can supply a mini-fridge upon request, but no cooking appliances

This Accessibility Statement applies to all proprietary content on The Washington Square Hotel website. The hotel is not responsible for any third-party content on the website.